

Employee Benefits Guide

Company: Northwind Digital (fictional demo company)

1. Health insurance

Employees are enrolled in the company medical plan from their first day of employment, with no waiting period. Dependents may be added at any time during the year. The employee contributes 20% of the monthly premium and the company contributes 80%.

2. Dental and vision

A supplementary dental plan and a vision plan are provided free of charge. The vision plan covers an annual eye examination and a frame allowance of 200 USD per calendar year.

3. Retirement savings

Employees can join the 401(k) retirement savings plan from day one. The company matches 4% of salary, vesting over 3 years. The contribution limit is set by the plan administrator each year.

4. Life insurance

The company provides life insurance equal to 2 times base salary, plus voluntary supplemental life insurance at the employee's own cost.

5. Paid parental leave supplements

All fully paid parental leave described in the Leave Policy is topped up to 100% of base salary for the first 3 months, so that parents receive full pay rather than only the statutory amount.

6. Learning and development

Each employee receives an annual learning budget of 1,200 USD and 5 dedicated learning days. Conference attendance requires manager approval and is covered by the learning budget.

7. Wellness

Employees receive a quarterly wellbeing stipend of 100 USD for fitness, mental health or ergonomic products. A confidential employee assistance programme provides 8 free counselling sessions per year.

8. Equipment and home office

Remote-eligible employees receive a 600 USD one-time home office budget and a monthly home internet allowance of 45 USD, as described in the Work From Home Policy.

9. Relocation support

Employees relocating for a new role inside the company receive up to 8,000 USD towards relocation costs, available after 12 months in the new role.

10. Time off in lieu

Employees may convert up to 5 unused wellness days each year into time off in lieu, subject to manager approval.

Benefits questions: benefits@northwind.example